Scripture Union

This note is from Elizabeth Porter, with thanks.

Some time ago I stood at the front and asked you to pray for SU.

I thought I should report back that we've had up to 40 different children coming and most weeks we have 30 children there!

They are full of enthusiasm too. We meet during Tuesday lunchtime. Please keep on praying for us as a team, for the children as they learn more about God, and give thanks for the staff at the school who are so welcoming.

As we begin this new sermon series on the church, we do so anchored in the words of the apostle Paul:

“So, then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone.” Ephesians 2:19–20

This series is an invitation, not just to attend, but to belong; not just to listen, but to be built together. God has not called us to follow Christ in isolation, but to be formed as His people, joined together around Jesus Christ, our cornerstone. We are the church.

That’s why I’m encouraging everyone to take part fully in this journey. Alongside the preaching on Sundays, our home groups have been equipped to study through this series, so that God’s Word can shape us in different places: around our kitchen tables, in prayer, in honest conversation, and in shared obedience.

As we set out together, we are praying that the Lord would grant us a deep joy in Him, a true unity in the Spirit, and a growing hunger to go deeper into the truth. And we
